

UNC-Chapel Hill Impact in N.C. Congressional District 6

PUBLIC AFFAIRS
Federal Affairs

District Representative: Kathy Manning (D)

10th in Federal Research Expenditures Nationally

13th in Overall Research Expenditures Nationally

1st in Best Value for public colleges

Over $1.16B in Annual Research Expenditures from All Sources

Driving the State Economy

$2.6 billion total annual NC economic impact of UNC research & UNC startup companies

12,827
N.C. Employees

274
N.C. businesses spun out of research at UNC-CH

$1.7 billion
in N.C. salaries

Preparing N.C.'s Workforce

19,743
Undergraduate Students

11,796
Graduate & Professional Students

Delivering Affordable Education

$36.8 million institutional aid awarded to first-year class

$22.5 million Pell Grants awarded to 22% of undergraduates

20% first-generation college students

District 6 Snapshot

2,059 students from district 6 • 19,757 Alumni in district 6 • 199 employees in district 6 • $20.6 million payroll in district 6

- Led by the UNC School of Nursing and funded by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, researchers examine how to strengthen the primary care workforce by redesigning education.
- Funded by the National Institutes of Health, the UNC Institute for Global Health and Infectious Diseases provides access to promising clinical trials for HIV prevention and treatment.
- The UNC Center for Health Promotion and Disease Prevention aims to improve access to healthy food through policy and environmental change with funding from the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services.

