

UNC-Chapel Hill Impact in N.C. Congressional District 14

PUBLIC AFFAIRS
Federal Affairs

District Representative: Jeff Jackson (D)

10th in Federal Research Expenditures Nationally

13th in Overall Research Expenditures Nationally

1st in Best Value for public colleges

Over $1.16B in annual research expenditures from all sources

Driving the State Economy

$2.6 billion total annual NC economic impact of UNC research & UNC startup companies

12,827
N.C. Employees

274
N.C. businesses spun out of research at UNC-CH

$1.7 billion
in N.C. salaries

Preparing N.C.'s Workforce

19,743
Undergraduate Students

11,796
Graduate & Professional Students

Delivering Affordable Education

$36.8 million institutional aid awarded to first-year class

$22.5 million Pell Grants awarded to 22% of undergraduates

20% first-generation college students

District 14 Snapshot

2,731 students from district 14 • 23,807 Alumni in district 14 • 42 employees in district 14 • $3.6 million payroll in district 14

- With funding from NASA, the UNC Institute for the Environment enlists citizen scientists and satellites to track lake water levels.
- Funded by the National Institutes of Health, the UNC Center for AIDS Research provides infrastructure to support investigation of the HIV/AIDS epidemic using clinical and behavioral research, research into HIV biology and pathogenesis, and educational outreach.
- The UNC Frank Porter Graham Child Development Institute, with funding from N.C. Department of Public Instruction, provides early learning communities with professional development and technical assistance to support preschool children with disabilities and their families.

